To end a meeting...

A quorum

The minimum number of individuals required to conduct business as stated in bylaws often more than half the members.

What adjourn means

Correct way to state a motion

I move that we.....

A listing of things to be done at a meeting and the order in which they will be discussed
Committee

A group of individuals appointed to do one job or complete a specific task for the group.

Parliamentary Procedure

A way to ensure that business is conducted in a methodical way that is efficient, fair and friendly for all participating.

Standing Committee

A committee that functions throughout the year.

Vote

Democratic way to allow every member to have input into the final decision of the group.

To table something, means

Typically to postpone a decision until something can be researched or looked into by committee.
After a motion has been made
And seconded what would the Chair say

“Is there any discussion?”

What every motion
requires to be discussed

A second.

What a member can say to ask for a vote

I call the question.

Only way you can make a new motion is to have current motion

– Voted on – Withdrawn
– Amended
– Tabled

A motion

A way to bring business before the group so it may be considered and voted upon.
Point of Order

The purpose is to call attention to a violation of the rules, to an omission, or to a mistake in procedure.

Amend

A way to change or modify a motion so that it will accurately express the will of a group.

Appeal

Used when someone believes that the presiding officer has made a decision which is wrong.

Order of making motion

Motion made, seconded, discussed and voted on.

Things that can happen to a motion

Ratified, reconsidered or amended, rescinded, tabled, adopted or rejected
