

Thursday, January 12, 2017

Managing your Forests and Farms For Fish and Wildlife

9:00 am– 1:30 pm

Registration 8:30cst

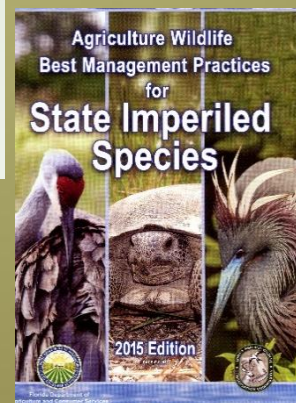

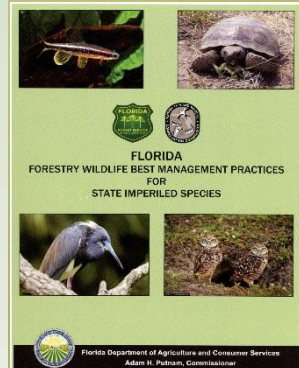

IFAS Extension Service Office 2741 Pennsylvania Ave, Marianna, FL 32448

Door Prizes

Lunch will be provide free of charge but you must pre-register by January 9,2017 . To pre-register contact Billie Clayton at (850) 767-3634.

FEATURED TOPICS:

- Gopher Tortoise Habitat and Management –Learn about the habitat needs of gopher tortoises and how to use that information to manage tortoises on your property
- SE American Kestrels – Learn about their biology and what you can do to help kestrel populations recover in North Florida and participate in a nationwide nest box monitoring program
- Fire and Wildlife – Is summer burning harmful to ground nesting birds? Does winter burning really help control my undergrowth? These and other questions on the benefits of fire will be answered
- Wildlife Best Management Practices – Learn about the new Forestry and Agricultural BMP’s for state listed imperiled species
- FORCES Recognition Program– Learn about the new FORCES program to recognize landowners who support the military by keeping their land in forestry and agriculture
- Cost-share Programs – What is available this year and when are the sign up deadlines.

From I-10, Exit at Hwy 276 and travel north 1.2 miles to the Jackson County Ag Center on the left.

