

Angela Hinkle, CHES

EFNEP Agent

850-475-5230

ahinkle@ufl.edu

3740 Stefani Road

Cantonment, FL 32533

Educational Program Focus

- Expanded Food & Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP)

Teach nutrition and food resource management to 200 limited-resource families and 2,500 low-income youth through demonstrations, lectures, games, hands-on activities, and tastings.

- Elder Food and Nutrition

Teach nutrition and food safety to low-income elderly at five congregate meal sites.

- Escambia County Citizens Wellness & Nutrition Education

Provide education programming in areas of disease prevention and healthy lifestyles related to nutrition and finance to residents of Escambia County.

Work Experience

- 5 Years 2008 - present Escambia County EFNEP Agent
- 4 Years 2004 - 2008 Escambia County EFNEP Program Assistant
- 2 Years 2002 – 2003 Granville County NC EFNEP Program Assistant

Education

- 2010 Certified Health Education Specialist National Commission for Health Ed. Credentials, Inc.
- 2010 Master's Degree Health Education University of West Florida
- 1986 Bachelor's Degree Broadcast Communications University of Maryland