

Pete Vergot III, Ph.D.
Professor and
District Extension Director
(850) 875-7137
pvergot@ufl.edu
155 Research Road
Quincy, Florida 32351

UF IFAS Extension Responsibilities:

The District Extension Director, provides leadership, instruction, support of educational program development, and administration of the extension program for the 70+ county extension faculty and 50+ staff located in the 16 counties of the Northwest Extension District across the panhandle of Florida.

 Facebook = <http://www.facebook.com/IFASNW>  Twitter = <http://twitter.com/#!/IFASNW>

Employment and Experience:

1997– Present, University of Florida IFAS Extension, Gainesville, FL

Professor and District Extension Director, Tenured

1985–1997, Michigan State University Extension, Paw Paw, MI,

County Extension Director - Van Buren County, Permanent Status

1995–1996, MSU Extension, State Pesticide Education Coordinator (50% time)

1990–1995, MSU Extension, State Program Coordinator (50% time)

1983–1985, Michigan State University Extension, County Extension Agent - Van Buren County

1976–1983, Van Buren Intermediate Schools, Lawrence, MI

Instructional Manager – Production Agriculture, Tenured

1976–1981, Van Buren Intermediate Schools, Lawrence, MI

Teacher for Migrant Education Program (summers)

Education:

1991 Ph.D., Michigan State University,

1980 MA, Michigan State University,

1976 BS, Michigan State University,

1974 AA, Southwestern Michigan Community College