

Kalyn Waters

County Extension Director II

850-547-1108

kalyn.waters@ufl.edu

1169 E. Highway 90
Bonifay, FL 32425

Education Program Focus:

- Provide educational programming leadership and individual consultation for producers within Holmes County to optimize the utilization of the resources in their operation for the production of cattle, crops and other agricultural enterprises through economic and production based management practices.
- Focus on developing the next generation of farmers and ranchers within Holmes County through career and industry based programming, while educating youth about how agriculture contributes to the quality of life.
- Serve at the County Extension Director for Holmes Co. providing leadership and direction for agents and support staff, while working to ensure the overall quality and direction of programming within the county

Work Experience:

- Deseret Cattle and Citrus, Area Manager in Cattle, July 2013-October 2015,
- South Dakota State University Extension, Cow/Calf Field Specialist July 2012-July 2013

Education:

- 2011 Master of Science in Animal Science, Reproductive Physiology University of Florida
- 2009 Bachelor of Science in Animal Science Oklahoma State Univ.
- 2006 Associate of Science in Agricultural Communications Northwest College, Wyoming

