

Ray Bodrey

CED Agent II

Ag and Natural Resources/Sustainable
Communities

(850) 639-3200

rbodrey@ufl.edu

232 East Lake Avenue

Wewahitchka, FL 32465

CED: Provide leadership for one agent and support staff. Responsible for maintaining and forging strong relationships with community stakeholders, project partners, county administrators and state/federal agencies.

Educational Program Focus:

Horticulture & Small Farms: native plant species, landscaping, crops, forestry, beekeeping, master gardener program, and assistance in 4-H and other extension activities.

Sustainable Communities: low impact development practices for curbing storm water activity and water conservation.

Marine: water quality, fisheries, coastal hazard resiliency, master naturalist program and assistance in other Florida Sea Grant activities.

Professional Experience

2008 – 2015                      UGA Marine Extension Service & Georgia Sea Grant, Marine Resource Specialist III

2007-2008                        Georgia Southern University-Department of Chemistry, Laboratory Coordinator

Education

2015	M.S.	Soil & Water Science	University of Florida
2011	M.A.L.	Agricultural Leadership	University of Georgia
2006	B.S.	Biology	Georgia Southern University