

Melanie G. Taylor

Extension Agent III,
4-H / Family & Consumer Sciences
850.639.3200 or 229.2909
metaylor@ufl.edu
200 North 2nd Street
Wewahitchka, FL 32465

2010 County Impacts and Outcomes

Educational Program Focus:

- 4-H Youth Development - Provide leadership and individual consultation to 4-H youth and adults. Plan, implement, and evaluate 4-H programs, (community clubs, school enrichment, camps, and other activities). Recruit, screen, train, and supervise adult and teen volunteers.
- Family & Consumer Sciences - Plan, implement, and evaluate 4-H EFNEP and FNP educational programs offered to limited-resource youth in the areas of nutrition, health, food safety, and economizing food dollars through meal planning and food resource management.

Work Experience

- |                |                |  |
|----------------|----------------|--|
| • 1 year/10 mo | 2009 – Present | Gulf County, Extension Agent II, 4-H/FCS                           |
| • 5 years      | 2003 – 2008    | Isle of Wight County, VA - Extension Agent, 4-H & Unit Coordinator |
| • 2.5 years    | 2001-2003      | Southampton County, VA – Associate Extension Agent, 4-H            |
| • 2.5 years    | 1998-2001      | Teacher, Life Science/Physical Science, Smithfield Middle School   |

Education

- |        |                      |           |                    |
|--------|----------------------|-----------|--------------------|
| • 2004 | Masters of Science   | Education | Virginia Tech      |
| • 1998 | Bachelors of Science | Education | Radford University |