

COLD HARDY CITRUS Workshop

September 24, 2024

UF/IFAS Extension Office

Taylor County

203 Forest Park Dr, Perry, FL 32347

Registration Fee $25

$30 at the door

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/ufifas-taylor-madison-countys-cold-tolerant-citrus-production-workshop-tickets-943758847117>

Time	Agenda
8:30am	Registration/Check-In/Visit Vendors
9:00am	Introductions/Opening Remarks Dan Fenneman, Director UF/IFAS Extension Madison County Lisa Strange, AG & Natural Resources Agent, Taylor County
9:20-10:00am	Growing Cold Hardy Citrus: Essential Tips & Strategies for Planting Citrus Dr. Muhammad Shahid, Assistant Professor Fruit Crops, UF/IFAS Quincy, FL
10:05-10:40am	Everyday Considerations of a Successful Citrus Grower Bill Barber, AG Services, LLC & Certified Crop Advisor
10:45 - 11:00am	BREAK - Meet the Vendors
11:00 - 11:30am	Fresh Citrus Markets and Prices Kevin Athearn, Regional Specialized Agent, Rural & Agribusiness Development UF/IFAS North Florida Suwannee Valley Research & Education Center
11:35am - 12:15pm	Breeders/Industry Highlights Peter Chaires, Executive Director New Varieties Development and Management Corp
12:15 - 1:15pm	LUNCH/Network with Vendors
1:15 - 1:35pm	Procedures If You Have HLB and/or Canker Callie Walker, Bureau Chief Pest Eradication & Control Citrus Health Response Program, Division of Plant Industry
1:40 - 2:00pm	Fruit Sales & Contracts Peter Spyke, Owner Florida Orange Shop
2:05 - 2:30pm	Cold Hardy Citrus Association Meeting/Updates Buster Corley, President

UF | IFAS Extension
UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

An Equal Opportunity Institution.

The University of Florida is committed to providing universal access to all of our events. For disability accommodations such as sign language interpreters and listening devices, please contact janesmith@ufl.edu at least 2 weeks in advance. Advance notice is necessary to arrange for some accessibility needs.