

Allison Leo

Extension Agent I, 4-H
(850) 606-5212
aleo@ufl.edu
615 Paul Russell Road
Tallahassee, FL 32301

Educational Program Focus:

Develop and lead a community based 4-H youth development program which teaches life skills through a combination of methods including afterschool programs, summer camps, community clubs, and project groups. Provide leadership to develop, implement, evaluate, and report accomplishments of the 4-H program in Leon County. Collaborate with local community members, partner organizations, and Extension faculty to develop and implement educational programs that assure equal access for all citizens. Recruit, screen, train, manage, and evaluate both adult and youth volunteers in order to effectively carry out the mission of 4-H and sustain positive learning environments. Work with citizen groups, public agencies and individual citizens to deliver a program that provides positive youth development in Leon County.

Work Experience

UF/IFAS Extension; Leon County	2017 – present	Extension Agent I, 4-H
Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services	2014 – 2017	Farmers' Market Nutrition Program Coordinator
Leon County Health Department	2012 – 2014	Nutrition Educator
Seminole County Health Department	2010 – 2012	Nutrition Educator

Education

Ongoing	Master's Degree	Public Administration	University of West Florida
2010	Bachelor's Degree	Dietetics	Florida State University